

Do you

NEED TO ASSESS A REINFORCED CONCRETE STRUCTURE FROM THE PAST?

Construction of multi-storey flats in Sydney (ARC, 1953)

Inspection of reinforcement for Moonee Valley Grandstand (John Connell & Associates, 1977)

Installation of prefabricated cage in Robina, QLD (1994)

Sydney Opera House construction (Arup, April 1964)

A young Scott Munter, Executive Director SRIA, during construction of Gateway Plaza (1987)

SAVE TIME with the NEW Guide to Historical Steel Reinforcement in Australia

The 2-volume hardcover set assists practicing Engineers to assess reinforced concrete structures dating back to 1895.

You will find inside:

- Type and properties of reinforcement
- Composition and properties of concrete
- Design and construction methodologies
- Standards and specifications
- Fascinating stories and achievements of our industry pioneers

Steel Reinforcement
Institute of Australia

Order your guide at:
sria.com.au